

Classical Album
Wed., March 33
Announcer: C. Walz

Theme up and down

Annecr: Good afternoon, welcome to Classical Album, an hour of good music for your listening enjoyment.

Theme up and out

Annecr: To open today's program of Classical Album, here is Arthur Rubenstein to play Beethoven's Sonata in F Minor, the Apassionata Sonata.

Music Side #1 19:01

Annecr: You have just heard Beethoven's Sonata in F Minor. To continue today's program of Classical Album, here is the Sonata in E Flat, also by Beethoven.. This sonata was composed in ~~the~~ 1800, but was not published until two years later. Shortly before beginning this composition, Beethoven expressed a dissatisfaction with his work in general, and was determined to strike out on a new road. The result may be called his middle-period of which the Sonata in ~~E Minor~~ ^{E Flat} is a distinct part.

Music Side 2 19:33

You have just heard Beethoven's Sonata in E Flat
Annecr: To conclude Classical Album for today, here is the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Vaughn Williams to play Fantasia on a Theme by Tallis.

Music : Side 2 20'

Theme up and down

Annecr This concludes today's program of Classical Album. We hope you have enjoyed it.

19 01
19 33

20
58' 34"

Answer: C. Wells
Wed., March 27
Answer: C. Wells

Thank you and have

Answer: Good afternoon, welcome to Classical Album, an hour of good music for your listening enjoyment.

Thank you and have

Answer: To open today's program of Classical Album, here is Arthur Fuchsstein on why Beethoven's Sonata in E minor, the Appassionata.

Answer:

Musical Side of Life

Answer: We have just heard Beethoven's Sonata in E minor. To continue today's program of Classical Album, here is the Sonata in E-flat, also by Beethoven. This sonata was composed in the 1800's, but was not published until two years later. Shortly before beginning this composition, Beethoven expressed a dissatisfaction with his work in general, and was determined to strike out on a new road. The result may be called his middle-period of which the Sonata in E-flat is a striking example.

Musical Side of Life

Answer: We have just heard Beethoven's Sonata in E-flat. To continue today's program of Classical Album, here is the Minuet in G.

Answer: We have just heard the Minuet in G by Johann Sebastian Bach.

Thank you and have

Musical Side of Life

Thank you and have

Answer: This concludes today's program of Classical Album. We have your hosts

W. Joyce and 1901

1902
1903

1904
1905
1906